AT JEFFERSON'S "LITTLE RED SCHOOL HOUSE"

Principal James Ferguson joins the throng who purchase War stamps regularly from the "Little Red School House" bond booth at Jefferson Union high school. In the booth are Wilma Cassasa and Evelyn Ghiselin, A. W. V. S. Juniors. Miss Edna Smith, faculty advisor for the A. W. V. S. Juniors, announces a total of $1,23155 in stamps sold to date.

A special drive to sell MORE War Bonds and Stamps will be made, December 7-11 when Jefferson will observe "Patriotic Week." Goal is to have every student in the school purchase stamps or bonds.

FOR HER PART, SHE "JOINED THE MARINES"

MRS. GEORGE BOLTRES

Police Sergeant's Daughter Takes Job To Release "Leatherneck" For Fighting

Another "enlistment" in the United States Marine corps from their family recently honored Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sunderland, 364 Miriam street. Sergeant Sunderland is a well known member of the Daly City Police department.

Corporal James Wilbur Sunderland, their son, is now overseas, serving his second enlistment in the Marine corps. But the most recent addition to the Marines from the Sunderland family is Mrs. George Boltres. She is the former Miss Valere Sunderland, daughter of Sergeant and Mrs. Sunderland.

When Valere's husband left for a job with a construction company at Pearl Harbor recently, she decided that it was time for her to get into "active service", so she gave up her job with a San Francisco collection agency, took a civil service examination, and a few days later "joined" the Marines. Today she has the double satisfaction of knowing that she is not only doing highly important

Council Decides To Sponsor Party

Youngsters To Get Usual Christmas Treat

War or not, the annual Christmas Party will be held this year, as in the past, was the assurance given Daly City children by the city council, Monday night, when the board voted to spend $100 as partial financing of the party.

The annual affair was feared to be postponed this year with the wartime community curtailment of activities and the elimination of the Daly City WPA Recreation department, which has sponsored the occasion for Daly City's children during past Christmas seasons. However, the city council decided that the children of this community deserved their usual Christmas party, regardless. A motion by Councilman Eugene V. Lynch was passed, authorizing an expenditure of $100 for the city's part in the party.

Other plans included the appointment of Mrs. Ann Eason and Mrs. Maisie Boyle as co-chairmen of the affair, and calling a meeting of the recreation committee for Tuesday, December 1. The following members of the recreation committee are requested to be present: R. L. Crane jr., James Ferguson, Mrs. Boyle, Mrs. Eason, Arthur J. Bodien, and the entire city council.

Among communication read to the council was one from the San Mateo County Department of Public Health asking if Daly City had an ordinance for establishing homes for homeless children and aged persons. Mayor A. J. Gaggero informed the council that he would contact the health office.

A communication from the League of California Cities requested information regarding the expenditures of the city for civilian defense in the past and the amount contemplated for the future. Bodien, director of civilian

Bank Of America To Release Checks

More than 278,000 checks, addressed to as many members of Bank of America's Christmas Club throughout California, are to be mailed this week-end for delivery on or about December 1.

In Daly City alone, approximately $60,000 will be paid out to 900 club members, according to figures just released by the manager of the Daly City branch of Bank of America, F. Erickson. At the Colma branch, John Ferrari reported $25,000 to be distributed to 350 club members.

Indians Close Season With Win

Showing a fast charging line and hard driving running attack, Jefferson high school's Indians capped their football season with a brilliant 20-6 win over San Mateo high school in the last game of the season played at Jefferson field Friday afternoon.

The Jeffs, demonstrating fine form in taking the Bearcats into camp, scored first on a pass over the end zone in the second quarter after getting into scoring position on a pass. When the Bearcats scored in the third quarter, they failed to match Jefferson's score by failing to convert, and it was 7-6. The Indians retaliated with three touchdowns to seal the victory.

In Coach Glenn South's first year with Jefferson, the Indians finished the season with three wins and five losses in a campaign that was marred by injuries and sickness. However, two of the Jeffs' wins were brilliant PAL victories, one of which broke a seven year jinx. This win was over Burlingame high by a score of 7-0, marking the first time Burlingame was defeated by Jefferson for that period. Other wins were Friday's game with San Mateo and the season opener, a 6-0 win over the traditional "first opponent", Tamalpais.

If You Have Turkey, Uncle Sam Wants Part

When you begin that mammoth job of cleaning up all the Thanksgiving Day dinner cooking utensils, (on a full stomach too!) remember there is part of that turkey that goes to Uncle Sam!

No, you can still have the drumsticks and the wings, to say nothing of all the dark meat you want. And the pooch can still feast on the bones as on peacetime Thanksgivings.

The part Uncle Sam is interested in is the turkey grease in the roaster. Turkey grease and all other waste fats are needed to make glycerine, an essential

Hundreds Still Violating Dimout

Nearly 300 dimout violators appeared in Daly City traffic court, Friday, to pay fines for citations from the Daly City Police department. The long court session marked the first day that dimout fines were collected since the new ordinance in Daly City has been in effect.

Most of the offenders paid fines of $2.50 for failure to dim their lights in Daly City's zone of restricted lighting, which runs practically all the way through Mission street, besides other streets of lesser traffic.

Tags were still being written by police officers, and Police Chief James G. Reardon reported 100 arrests made over the week-end. Daly City traffic court will probably handle another 300 offenses this week.

Crane Names Disaster Relief Center Leaders

Names of the persons who will man Red Cross Disaster Relief centers in Daly City in case of a disaster were named this week by R. L. Crane jr., local shelter procurement manager.

The two centers which will issue food, clothing, and shelter to those who need it in a disaster are: General Pershing school, Hanover street between Oliver and Acton

Begin To Classify Youths Of 18-19

Enlistments into the Navy and other branches of the service have taken one third of the quota of 160 men scheduled to be drafted from Daly City Draft Board No. 103, Friday, it was announced, this week, by Dr. J. C. McGovern, local draft board chairman.

Immediate classification of Daly City youths of 18 and 19 years of age will begin, Dr. McGovern said, and a large majority of them will be in the army within the next two months. However, the 18 and 19 year olds from this area, more than registrants of other ages, are pouring into Navy and Marine recruiting headquarters.

"I'm not complaining any," Dr. McGovern said. "As long as they Just Let Us Know!

This is an invitation from the Daly City Record to any local man in Uncle Sam's armed forces, or his "home folks" to let us know of promotions and activities that would be of interest to Daly City readers. We are always happy to publish such news. Since only a few of the training camps and officers' schools have public relations officers, we do not hear directly of many such promotions unless the men or their families themselves tell us.

When "Johnny" or "Joe" becomes corporal or goes off to officers' training school, let us know. Phone RAndolph 3215. That's NEWS to Daly City. In addition, our long-ago offer to send The Record free to any man fighting for Uncle Sam still holds. Just let us know your name and address.

DC Turns Thoughts To Men Overseas

Many Holiday Items Sold Out Or Rationed

With the approach of one of the greatest food crises America has ever undergone, a sacrificing, yet cheerful Daly City, will celebrate her first wartime Thanksgiving since that November when an America, 25 years younger, was also beginning to witness the hardship of the first year of war.

Foremost in the minds of many at home in Daly City, as other American communities, however, is not this hysterical food buying, not sky high prices of everyday commodities, nor the curtailment of many sources of pleasure, notably automobile driving. It is the thought of dear ones overseas and their Thanksgiving . . .

No ceremonies have been planned in Daly City for Thanksgiving. Many business stores and offices will be closed. All offices in the city hall will be closed all day except the Daly City Police department. Both branches of the Bank of America will be closed, but the Daly City branch of the post office will be open to allow the early Christmas mailing program to continue uninterrupted. All schools have been closed all week because of the Teachers' Institute.

Daly City markets were still stocked with Thanksgiving delicacies, Tuesday, but many were selling out fast toward evening. Turkeys were plentiful all day Monday and Tuesday morning but Daly City dealers indicated that their supplies would be practically exhausted by Tuesday night. Some markets had only enough turkeys

Don't Forget -- Save Those Tin Cans!

Pupils in six Daly City grammar schools continue their campaign for tin cans from every household in Daly City, this week. They are supported by Daly City's Salvage for Victory Committee, which urges all housewives to donate cans to help lick the national shortage.

Truck collections to take tin from the schools to the detinning plant in South San Francisco have been interrupted for the past two weeks with gasoline-mileage rationing registration in the schools, last week, and the Thanksgiving holiday. However, R. L. Crane jr., superintendent of schools and local salvage chairman, announced that the collection will be bigger than ever next

More Than 3,000 Get "A" Books Here

"A" gasoline rationing books and windshield stickers were passed out to 3,370 motorists in Daly City at grammar schools in the Jefferson school district during the three day registration period, last week, it was announced, Tuesday, by Superintendent of Schools R. L. Crane jr.

There was probability that a few hundred drivers in Daly City have not yet registered nor are in possession of their basic books for gasoline rationing, which begins Tuesday. All drivers who have not yet received their "A" books and stickers must wait until after Thursday, December 3, to register. Then, they are required to go to War Price and Rationing Board No. 31-4, 473 Grande avenue, South San Francisco. Further registration for "A" books will NOT be held in the schools.

Setting up of the deputy board office in Daly City to serve local rationing applicants will not begin until the latter part of next week, the rationing board announced, Tuesday. All board members are needed in South San Francisco to get applications in order and filed, in addition to examination of papers for supplemental gasoline.

Main Attraction At Daly City Theatre This Weekend Will Be "The Pied Piper"

One of the most tender and moving stories ever presented on the screen opens Thursday, November 26, at the Daly City theatre. It's the picturization of Nevil Shute's great novel, "The Pied Piper," and it follows the tradition of those other 20th Century-Fox film versions of great novels—"How Green Was My Valley" and "The Grapes of Wrath."

Dramatically telling the touching story of a group of child refugees who are shepherded from occupied France to Britain and safety by a gruff Englishman, the picture has in abundance those elements which go to make up a great film—breath-taking pathos—rich humor and tense adventure.

It is a magnificent salute to the stalwart fearlessness that is in some men as well as to the simple faith that lives in the heart of all children.

Too much cannot be said for the superlative performances of the players. Monty Woolley as the gruff Englishman surpasses his outstanding work in "The Man Who Came To Dinner". Properly explosive at times, he shows an unsuspected ability for the warm, more human scenes.

Roddy McDowall's portrayal compares favorably with that of his memorable Huw in "How Green Was My Valley." Cool and calm, he proves an invaluable aid to the crochety Woolley. Attractive Anne Baxter gives definite proof that she is an actress of rare ability.

The supporting players, Otto Preminger and J. Carrol Naish are admirably suited for their roles. Director Irving Pichel has paced the film excitingly, taking full advantage of the extremely well done screen play by Producer Nunnally Johnson.

AT CROCKER

Dennis Hancock has returned to Crocker school and Daly City, after living in Idaho for the last three years.

Pupils of Room 6 have taken considerable interest in the study of insects along with their social science course.

Tom Davidson, a pupil in Room 4 spent a recent Sunday pheasant hunting with his father at Woodland.

AT JEFFERSON

Defense Stamp Day is a weekly source of interest to all Jefferson pupils. Last week it was of more than usual interest because of some statistics in which each stamp purchaser had a part.

Each child who purchased stamps knew just how much he as an individual contributed to national defense and how much Jefferson school as a whole contributed.

The total amount of money invested, last week on Defense Stamp Day was $129.35 which, according to a table of statistics appearing in a recent issue of "Current Events" would purchase the following: gas for a 32 self-inflating life belts, fuel to run a Destroyer 60 miles, oxygen for a pilot for 7 hours, 20 minutes, food for a carrier pigeon for 1 year, 445 cartridges, 168 bullets, 13 hand grenades, 13 French shovels, 32 aerial films, 1 pair aviator's gloves, 1 field telescope, and 714 bandages.

Each child referred to the chart beforehand and determined for himself what he wished to purchase. The fifth grade was "Class of the Week", having the highest percentage of purchasers.

The bride wore a lovely suit of R. A. F. blue with brown accessories. She had a white corsage. The maid of honor wore a suit of forest green with brown accessories. The bride's mother, Mrs. Lesley Hill, wore a dress of deep orchid color, while the groom's mother, Mrs. Clara Paisley, was attired in a Navy blue suit.

A small group of relatives and friends were present for the wedding ceremony at 127 Templeton avenue.

The wedding supper was served buffet style and the table was decorated with white candles and lovely bells. A beautiful wedding cake was the centerpiece.

FOOD RATIONING, present or threatened, may have dampened your Thanksgiving spirit. But other, earlier Thanksgiving Days have been faced by this nation with the prospect of tightened belts.

Probably, too, your observance of this traditional holiday will be overcast by the absence of loved ones now in danger. As Americans, let us take comfort in the knowledge of the high ideals for which our men are fighting.

Under these wartime conditions, may we wish for you the happiest possible Thanksgiving holiday, and pledge our utmost aid through service to you.

Red Cross To Care For Shipwreck Victims

Assurance that the Red Cross will provide emergency relief for survivors of ships that may be attacked off the San Mateo county coastside was given, this week, during a meeting of the Red Cross disaster relief officials held at committee headquarters in Burlingame.

Victims of enemy action or other marine disaster will be provided with food, clothing and shelter on landing, according to the Red Cross plan, it was stated by Percy Shaw, chairman of the disaster relief committee for the San Mateo County Red Cross chapter.

Reporting for the organization's registration and information committee at the meeting, Miss Jane Taylor, vice-chairman, stated that personnel of all relief centers within the chapter area have been trained in their duties in event of disaster. Miss Taylor pointed out that instruction courses and rehearsals of emergecy procedure are held here periodically.

Hold Funeral Services For Patrick Harkins

Funeral services for Patrick Harkins, 142 Wilson street, were held, Monday, November 16, with requiem mass at Our Lady of Perpetual Help church. Interment was in Holy Cross cemetery.

Harkins died, Wednesday, November 11, in a San Francisco hospital. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sarah Harkins.

BLOOD BANK

The San Mateo County Blood Bank is contributing fresh blood almost daily to the United States Naval hospital at Treasure Island. The blood is used in acute cases coming in from the Pacific area. Blood plasma which the county bank donated and stored at Oak Knolls hospital is reported being used constantly. In both cases containers are provided by the government, but the fresh blood, plasma, and services are donated by the county bank.

The responses to emergency calls have been made possible by the citizens of San Mateo county who have answered the call for blood donations. The county bank has had, during the six months of its existence, over 2,100 donors. Already more donors are contributing a second time.

You can enjoy Your Thanksgiving Dinner

You will have greater enjoyment from your Thanksgiving dinner if you have been able to prepare it with a few quick twists of the wrist instead of making yourself a holiday slave to the kitchen. Simply use a dough blanket over your turkey — no basting — no watching. Result—a beautiful golden browned bird with no trouble at all!

Method

Brush the cleaned, stuffed and trussed bird with shortening; place securely, breast up in a large flat pan. Prepare stiff dough, using 6 to 8 cups of flour depending on the fowl's size. Add just enough water to form mixture that can be rolled. Knead mixture well; roll out ½ to ¾ inch thick and large enough to form a blanket that will drop clear down on either side of the bird. Place over bird (no tucking under, mind you). Be sure to let it hang free and be sure that it covers the bird! Pour 1 cup of water in pan; place immediately in hot oven (450° F.) for 15 minutes to allow blanket to set.

This is absolutely necessary. And don't let the turkey stand with the dough blanket on. If blanket should stretch thin at legs or thigh, take it off and re-roll it. When blanket is set, reduce heat to 350° F. and continue cooking.

So, no basting is necessary, but water must be replenished in pan as needed, keeping about 1 cup in the pan all the time. Remove blanket by cracking with a small hammer about ½ hour before roasting period is through. Be careful not to break skin when removing blanket. Brown uncovered if a deeper color is desired.

For Roasting Time

Turkey generally takes 15 to 25 minutes per pound depending on the way the bird has been fed. The smaller the bird, the longer the time per pound required for roasting. Cook at 325°-350° F.

week with the combined efforts of every family cook in Daly City and the grammar school tin collectors.

The pupils go to your home for your box of tin cans, each pupil with his own territory to cover. Have your tin cans ready for the collector in your block. They must be prepared by removing the labels, washing the cans, and flattening them by stepping on them.

Names of grammar school pupils collecting the tin cans have been published in the Record in series form, for the past five issues. Following are the names of collectors from Thornton primary: Lani Strong, First street between Castle and East Moltke streets; LaVerne Chelone, A street between Taylor and Clarke streets; Herbert Woods, East Moltke street between Mission street and Hillside boulevard; Robert Martinelli, Market street between Mission street and First avenue; Richard McCarver, Sylvan and Byrnes avenues; Shirley Flynn, Valley street between Mission and Taylor streets; Gloria Massoni, Atlantic and Market streets; Victor Raggio, Mt. Olivet; Anthony DeMattei, East Moltke street between Mission street and Hillside boulevard; Mario Leveroni, East Cavour street between Mission street and Hillside boulevard; Dolores Lagomarsino, East Moltke and Mission streets; Mabel Garibaldi, First street between Market and Castle streets; Louise Poletti, Hillside boulevard between East Moltke and East Cavour streets; Beverly Shields, Bismark street between Mission street and Hillside boulevard; Mary Jane Coffey, Mission street between Castle and Market streets; Carol von Metnitz, Cavour street between Mission and Hillside boulevard; James Mackie, Hillside boulevard between East Cavour and Bismark streets; and Mary Ann Eberle, Hillside boulevard between Cavour and Bismark streets.

THANKSGIVING

to fill orders which were already placed. Fresh cranberries and celery, always topnotch Thanksgiving features were still selling, but canned cranberries and pumpkin were absent from many shelves.

Another wartime ration which faces Daly City, like other communities, on this Thanksgiving week, is coffee rationing. Retail sale of coffee has been closed all week, and beginning Sunday, every coffee drinker in Daly City over 15 years of age will be limited to one pound of coffee every five weeks. War ration book one, already in use for sugar rationing, will be used. The first ration period will run from Sunday to January 3, 1943, when one pound may be purchased with stamp No. 27.

Yet, on this Thanksgiving there is much to be thankful for, when America looks on a famine in Greece and a war torn China and Russia. If our courage during this war can match theirs until victory is reached, we can be as thankful on this Thanksgiving as on that future peacetime Thanksgiving.

In charge of the Woodrow center is Mrs. Ida Hanley. Others there who serve only at Woodrow are Mrs. Ann Eason, registration and information chairman, and Mrs. Maude Hanselman, canteen co-chairman.

Fire Checked Before Any Damage

What looked like the start of a fire from shorted wiring in the Daly City Creamery, 6290 Mission street, was nipped early Monday morning by the Daly City Fire and Police departments before it made any headway.

Smoke was reported by a boy to be coming from the building. He went to the police department at 7 a. m., and Officers George Hopman and Henry Sundermann jr., along with Fire Chief A. P. Chesney, were summoned. The boy was in charge of opening the creamery, and he let the officers and Chief Chesney in the building with his key. They found that one of the compressors on the ice machine had been shorted and the insulation was burning.

They disconnected the current, preventing further possible fire. No damage was done, nor was any apparatus called out.

Mysterious Bullet Penetrates Pillow

A shot from a high powered rifle sent a bullet through the wall and into a pillow on the bed in the home of Mrs. June Fletcher, 201 Vista Grande avenue, Sunday night. The mysterious case is now under investigation by Daly City police.

Mrs. Fletcher telephoned for officers, Sunday night, after she heard the shot and found the bullet. Officer Joe Kusber went to the Fletcher residence and found that the bullet had penetrated the wall of a bedroom facing the rear of the building.

On questioning neighbors about the shot, Officer Kusber learned that the shot apparently came from the direction of San Diego avenue. Those who heard the rifle report said that the sound came from that direction.

defense, was instructed to prepare a report for the league. The Civilian Defense Council's weekly meeting was changed to Wednesday for this week, since their regular meeting day, Thursday, is Thanksgiving Day.

MAIL EARLY

According to Frank Michletti, postmaster at Colma branch, the bulk of Christmas mail must be in the post offices by December 1 this year if deliveries on time are to be assured. This information comes from Smith W. Purdum, second assistant Postmaster general. Purdum is responsible to Postmaster General Frank C. Walker for smooth and efficient air and railway mail service.

Unprecedented wartime demands on the postal and transportation systems, plus a prospective record volume of Christmas mailings, were cited by Purdum as necessitating earlier mailings than ever before.

This man is the reason you should avoid Holiday Travel

Now, of all times, it is important for you to ask yourself candidly: "Do I have to take that trip?"

For now, and until early January, is the time for holiday furloughs. Those tanned, clean-looking boys with their freshly-pressed uniforms you see at our ticket windows will only have a few days at home with their folks this year. And while many men in uniform will not "come home for Christmas," their home folks, in many cases, will visit them, and this means a lot to the boys who stay in camp.

War's tremendous transportation demands — in carrying troops and war materials as well as civilians — have strained all railroad facilities to the utmost. Frankly, we're worried about the holiday season ahead. We know, as you do, that a furlough at home does something fine for a soldier. (And no one denies he's earned it.) But, to state the facts baldly, we can't carry the civilian holiday-takers and furloughing soldiers and sailors, too.

With such a good reason, most folks won't find a "sacrifice" in canceling a holiday trip. And if you're one of these, the thousands of us here at S.P. will give you a cheer. For railroad people aren't making holiday pleasure trips either.

So please write your family and friends you have changed your plans... that there's a lad in uniform who needs your seat to see his folks before he travels overseas — and needs it worse than you do. For, of course, you wouldn't want to take his seat when he tries to go home on his holiday furlough.

Your water heater is tough and built to take it, but it will last longer if not abused. Keep your tank free of sediment and rust. Clear the tank about once a month. It's easy to do. Here is how. There is a drain faucet near the bottom of your automatic storage water heater. Attach a hose to this drain faucet. Turn on faucet and let water run into floor drain or laundry tubs or a bucket. Run off tank water until it runs clear. It is not necessary to shut off any valves such as incoming water, gas burner or pilot light. Make sure too that the thermostat on your water heater is set no higher than 140 degrees.

Keep your AUTOMATIC GAS WATER HEATER in use...
it means less work for you

Care for your water heater like a faithful old friend. Use it wisely and efficiently to guard your home in health and cleanliness. It stands ready any hour day or night for hot medicinal drinks or applications and to speed up soap action for washing, scrubbing or cleaning. It will save you time and work and money every time you use it. Should repairs be necessary, have them done at once.

Emydian Institute Reports On Social

Members of Emydian Institute No. 154, Y. L. I., of Colma, reported that their Thanksgiving social, Friday evening, November 20, was highly successful. Speaker of the evening was Miss Rose Mahoney, whose topic dealt with Pioneer days and early Institute days. The attendance prize went to Mrs. Angie Varni.

At the meeting, the committee for the Christmas social was appointed. It includes Mrs. Gertrude Stanghellini, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Louise Zanetti, Mrs. Louise Olcese, and Miss Helen Callan. The committee will meet, next week at the home of Mrs. Zanetti, Cavour street, to plan details of the December 18 event.

Members were reminded that the Christmas stockings, which they are filling for children of the Rockaway Sunday school, should be returned at the December 11 meeting.

Old Saying "Woman's Place Is In Home" Now No Longer True

As a result of study of personal history factors revealed by application blanks of employees, the typical woman production worker at the Marinship yard in Sausalito might be described as follows:

She is between 26 and 35 years of age, weighs approximately 127 pounds and is about 5 feet 4 inches in height.

She is likely to be married, with no children, rents her home, and travels 10 to 15 miles to and from work.

She has had some high school training and previous work experience in low income occupations, where her average earnings have not been in excess of $100 per month.

Analysis of the data covering 381 women employed as welders, burners, shipfitters, machinists, pipefitter helpers and boilermaker helpers shows that 29 per cent of the women left professional, clerical and related occupations to enter shipyard production work. Fifty-three per cent came from jobs such as waitresses, housekeepers and low income factory workers, while 17 per cent were housewives and teachers. Only 1 per cent had previous experience in shipyard crafts.

F. B. Fox, personnel manager at Marinship, revealed that many of the women have taken up manual work motivated by patriotic impulses. The records show that 57 per cent of the women are married, many of them with husbands in one of the branches of the armed forces.

Woodrow PTA Plan Luncheon Whist

The public is cordially invited to attend the regular luncheon whist of Woodrow Wilson P. T. A., Monday, November 30. Lunch will be served at 12:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Betty Tunstall, 236 Los Olivos avenue. Card playing will follow.

Mrs. Tunstall announces a prize will be given for each table, along with many other attractive awards. A nominal charge will be made for the affair. Executive board members will assist with the serving.

Last meeting of the year, Tuesday, December 8, will be a combination business and executive board meeting. The group will convene at the home of Vice-President Mrs. Hilda Heagney, 117 Miriam street. All members are urged to attend as the year's last-minute business will be disposed of.

Mrs. Ida Hanley, president, and her delegate, Mrs. Elsie Hesslein, attended the district meeting in Burlingame, Thursday, November 19.

Hostesses at the Teachers' Tea, November 17, announce the affair was a huge success. Over fifty members and teachers attended.

Mrs. Hesslein, Mrs. Florence Hopman and Mrs. Ethel Saame were the three hostesses in charge. Open-faced sandwiches, tea and cake were served to the guests. Main event of the afternoon was the cutting of a huge cake.

Mrs. Hanley today expressed her thanks to the Woodrow unit members who served on the gas rationing board. Their names will be announced, next week.

"Student Prince" Opens This Sunday At Curran Theatre

Romberg's Operetta Brings To Audience Great Music, Humor

A moving love story told with sympathy and understanding, embellished with great music and underlined with gay lusty humor, always appeals to the theatre-going public . . . which explains why audiences over all the country retain such an affectionate regard for "The Student Prince," the production which opens at the Curran theatre, San Francisco, Sunday night, November 29. But in times like these the charm of this noted operetta is even greater than ever before in its colorful history as the record-breaking musical of the American stage.

One lives today in a period of storm and stress, when every edition of the n. p. brings with it some startling crisis in the affairs of men and nations. Boundaries change over night, people and men are crushed and imprisoned while the braver ones amongst them are subjected to bombings, the concentration camp has become a national European institution, ideologies have come to take the place of morals and the 'Old Country' as we once knew it is gone and never will return.

And "The Student Prince" recreates this 'Old Country' so many knew and loved. It brings to the stage again the life that was Heidelberg's and which made it the most heart-warming college capital on the Continent.

For "The Student Prince" tells the story of Prince Karl Franz Heidelberg . . . the Heidelberg that was gay and colorful and full of impish spirits, wide erudition, good beer, pretty women and lusty music. The story this operetta tells is of the love of a prince for a pretty maiden of the inn and how this love was interrupted when he was called back to the throne and again of his return to the town in a sensational search for the romance of his youth.

And in telling the story, "The Student Prince" utilizes the great tunes of Sigmund Romberg . . . such wonderful melodies as "The Drinking Song," "Just We Two," "Deep in My Heart, Dear," "Let's All Be Gay, Boys," "Serenade" and many others.

And the audience hearing "The Student Prince", realizes that it is being taken back to a scene that has forever been destroyed on the heel of the dictator.

A specially selected cast stars Everett Marshall, a former New York Metropolitan Opera star; also featured are Frank Hornaday, Barbara Scully, Detmar Poppen, Agnes Cassidy, Nina Verala, Harry K. Morton, Zella Russell, Victor Morley, Lorraine Bridges, and Ann Pennington, also the famous singing male chorus.

Performances will be given every night, including Sunday at 8:30. Matinees are on Wednesday and Saturday at 2:30 p. m.

JEFFERSON UNION HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

MUSIC

Howard Miguel and his Indians of Rhythm made their usual hit at the last dance of semester, Friday. Over four hundred and fifty people were present to dance to the popular tunes meted out by the band.

Singers of the evening were Lillian Altman, Elsie Belli and Jerry Lockwood.

Next event on the band's social calendar will be a benefit performance, Thursday, December 10. The entire cast will be featured.

SPORTS

Jefferson's "He"-men will be ready to lick the Japs single-handed after they complete the obstacle course being built at the school grounds. The physical education department is preparing the equipment.

It is a preliminary training program designed to toughen up the students. It will consist of eleven different types of obstacles made of logs and poles.

The course is expected to be completed in a short time and the boys will soon start preparing themselves for military and navy life before they are actually in the service.

Jr. A. W. V. S.

Orchids go to the girls of the Junior A. W. V. S. for their super-selling of war stamps and bonds for the month of October. Miss Edna Smith, faculty advisor, gave the following figures — $1,231.55 worth of stamps sold.

At the time of this tally, the freshman class was in the lead for amount bought, but the juniors had the best average per student. Their average stood $1.09 per student per month.

Officers of this popular organization are Anna Crossland, junior chairman; Shirley Rice, secretary, and Florence Jauch, treasurer.

It was announced by the group, that they hope to reach 90 per cent in bond and stamp sales for this month. When they reach this mark, the high school will be permitted to fly a treasury flag. Last month's quota was 61 per cent.

At their meeting Tuesday, November 17, the girls made dressings and swabs for the Visiting Nurses association.

ASSEMBLIES

M. C. Shafer, director of Junior Red Cross for Pacific area, addressed the student body on what they could do to help in the war effort.

Next noted speaker to honor the students Tuesday, December 1, will be Dean John Bunn, noted basketball authority and dean of men at Stanford university. He will address the students on "Students and the War Effort". He will give the very latest on General Hershey's statement regarding the new draft and its effect on the teen-age group.

LIBERTY SWING

Nobody could say the entertainment committee isn't doing their part toward the war effort! Norma Pedemonte, chairman, announced that approximately 450 stamps were sold, Friday.

The stamp, along with an old key, admitted the bearer to the Liberty Swing, Friday. Music was furnished by Howard Miguel and his popular Indians of Rhythm.

The San Mateo football team were guests of honor.

SENIORS

Members of the senior jinx committee met, Wednesday, November 18, to decide upon their semi-annual jinx program. The group would only divulge that things are coming right along. As to the theme—no talkie. It's a deep dark secret, but they guarantee everyone will be surprised.

PATRIOTIC WEEK

Are you doing your part in the war effort? This is the question being asked by Tillie Castro, vice-president. If not, here is your chance.

The week of December 7-11 has been declared by the executive board as patriotic week. All students are urged to wear something red, white and blue during the week.

The week will start off with a huge stamp drive on Monday, December 7. The goal of the student body is for every student to purchase a stamp.

Entertainment schedule for this week will be: Monday, films; Tuesday, patriotic speaker; Wednesday, pictures; Thursday, musical program by Howard Miguel and orchestra; Friday, patriotic rally and community sing.

Miss Castro is in charge of the affair. Members of the C. S. F. will assist.

NATURAL HISTORY CLUB

Members of the Natural History club have enjoyed several field trips recently. They are now busily engaged in working on the school museum composed of reptiles and insects. John Harville, faculty advisor, announces the group has the school's first marine aquarium. It was started three months ago.

Officers for the club are: Jerry Kollman, president; Lenora Ross, secretary-treasurer; and Dolores Thomas, corresponding secretary.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLASS

Would you like a picture of the special events at the high school? If you would, members of the photography class are making pictures of all special events and selling them to the students for a nominal charge. Just talk to any member or their instructor, John Harville.

The group has an average of 75 pictures made and sold. This is a good time to get your favorite football player's picture.

Carol Bryant is the group's president. She announces the organization is open for membership. All who might be interested are urged to see Harville.

JR. RED CROSS

A school wide membership drive will be held to get all students to join the Junior Red Cross. Mary Seidel, chairman, announces the memberships will be sold, Wednesday, December 9. For a nominal charge you will receive your membership card and be admitted to hear a musical program.

Proceeds will be used to buy materials to make writing boards and lap boards for the hospitals. They will be made under the direction of Truman Bentley. Ash trays will be made under the direction of Stanley Martin; greeting cards, under the direction of the art department.

The group is busy on scrap books, bedroom slippers, and other gifts. Christmas socks will also be made and filled for the Navy.

All of the work will be done by volunteer students, on Monday afternoons. Miss Seidel urges students to volunteer for this work as there will be material for all.

ingredient in explosives and gunpowder. This country must obtain 30 million pounds of glycerine from kitchen fats to offset possible shortages, and Daly City must meet its share of the nation-wide quota, according to R. L. Crane jr., local salvage chairman.

Daly City housewives can sell kitchen fats and greases to local meat dealers, thus making it available for manufacture of high explosives to use against the Axis.

Strain the grease into a clean metal container, keep it in a cool place and when you have a pound or more sell it to your butcher. Daly City meat dealers are paying 4 cents a pound for the waste fats.

Harold Lang Appears With Ballet Russe

When the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo returned to San Francisco for eight performances, last week, Daly City ballet enthusiasts had the unique experience of seeing a young man from this city in many of the numbers and featured in several roles. He was Harold Lang, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Lang, 14 Alp street. During the ballet's stay here he appeared in "Rodeo" (this year's new and very popular American ballet), "Le Beau Danube", "Les Elfes", "Nutcracker", and other favorites.

See next week's Record for a picture of the talented young artist and further details of his career in ballet.

More married men than ever before will be drafted from this board in December, because the Army will rely on these registrants until classifications can be issued to the 18 and 19 year olds and their induction be approved. Daly City's draft board is now sending married men, whose wives are working, to doctors for their preliminary physical examinations.

Since enlistments have taken one third of the inductees slated to report, Friday, Dr. McGovern announced that 101 men will report for induction, Friday. Names have not been released yet from the draft board, but they will be announced in next week's Record.

WOMEN BANDITS

Women have invaded every field of enterprise since the war—the factory, the office, and the military, and now comes the last straw!

Banditry, once the most distinguished of dishonorable professions reserved for he-men, was taken up by two young and pretty "gals" when they robbed the Globe tavern, Mission and Market streets, of $75 early Saturday morning.

SAVE CARS -- TIRES

Do you know that today, seven out of ten typical industrial workers depend on cars to get to work, two use public transportation and one walks.

Do you know that by January, out of every ten tires on workers' cars today, four will be worn out.

Do you know that by August 1943, eight out of every ten tires will be worn out; public transportation will be available to only four out of ten workers when their cars give out.

That is why the people of the United States are being called upon to save cars and tires.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

IN THESE days we feel a real gratitude toward anyone who can make us laugh. Such a debt we now owe to Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough, co-authors of a new book called "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," one of the December Book-of-the-Month Club choices. In the language of Broadway, it's a "laugh riot."

CORNELIA OTIS SKINNER

Some years ago—the authors won't tell how many—when they were nineteen, the girls got permission from their parents to go to Paris for the summer by themselves. To be sure, Cornelia's parents (her father was the famous actor, Otis Skinner) also went to Europe that summer, but it was not, they assured Cornelia and Emily, because they had any desire to interfere with the girls' independence. But they were called on for aid on more than one occasion.

The girls were young, romantic, and naive. They had made their own wardrobe for their voyage, and mostly they were proud of it though sometimes doubts crept in. Cornelia at that time was thinking she was like Theda Bara, and went in for sleeky black satin, long earrings, and a red Bordoni hat with a huge feather. Emily's favorite wearing apparel was a long black and white check coat, which she had bought at a great bargain, she thought, and which was so heavy that the only time she could wear it comfortably was when an obliging escort would hold it up by the collar to ease off some of the weight.

Though Aunt Mary's last admonition when she saw them off in Quebec was that they "get close to some nice women," it seemed to the girls that the nice women on board looked at them somewhat strangely. Emily made up for that lack, however, by quickly making friends with a gorgeous looking officer in a swank uniform with a lot of gold braid and a strip across his chest like a color-chart. While Cornelia was trying to decide whether her friend's conquest was an admiral or merely the ship captain, Emily came back and threw herself disconsolately on her deck chair. "He's the leader of the ship's band. And it isn't even the orchestra. It's some sort of band that plays in the morning to let you know that bouillon's ready."

Miss Skinner says that her friend attracted incident "as serge attracts lint," and that seems to hold for them both. There was the time, for instance, they were at tea with the theatrical producer, Gilbert Miller. Cornelia was most anxious to make a good impression because, maybe, Mr. Miller might offer her a job. But she never had a chance. In her excitement, Emily suddenly found herself swallowing the pink baby-ribbon which was tied around the sandwiches. She didn't dare stop and she chewed and chewed and Gilbert Miller never took his eyes off her. "For topping that impression," writes Miss Skinner, "I hadn't even a chance."

And there was the day Emily upset the entire contents of her crowded purse on the train tracks in Rouen, just a few minutes before their train was to leave Rouen, to the amusement of all the onlookers, and the time in Dieppe, when instead of riding to their hotel in a cab, they got in the hands of a French porter whose only means of conveyance turned out to be a wheelbarrow. However, it's impossible to tell you about all the hilarious incidents in this book. It's something you'll want to read for yourself, anyway.

COOKING VEGETABLES— how to do it to preserve the vitamins and minerals

Dorothy Greig

Baked stuffed peppers are rich in vitamins and full of flavor.

LATELY, it's the scientists rather than the cooks who've been teaching us new wrinkles about cooking vegetables.

They tell us that some of the health giving vitamins and minerals in vegetables evaporate when exposed to air. Some dissolve in water. Therefore, to prevent that we must do these simple things:

In boiling vegetables, use the least possible amount of liquid. (And save the liquor for sauces, gravies and soups.)

Cook quickly until just done—and serve immediately. Keep the pot tightly covered and don't stir the vegetables.

Boil potatoes in their skins (skins slip off easily after cooking.) Don't force hot vegetables through a ricer.

Treated in this kindly fashion vegetables not only retain their vitamins and minerals but their natural fresh flavor, too. Now dad and the youngsters won't balk at vegetables—they'll ask for 'em.

With these general directions in mind we can then use our imaginations. For instance, let's cook carrots in consomme instead of water—like this:

Savory Glazed Carrots

2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons onions, chopped
2 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt
9-10 whole scraped carrots (5-6 inches long)
1 can condensed consomme
½ cup water

Cook the chopped onions in the butter until soft but not brown. Roll the carrots in the flour and salt and saute with the onions and butter for about 10 minutes. Then pour the consomme with ½ cup water over the carrots. Cover tightly and cook until tender. Garnish the dish with sprigs of parsley or, even better, sprinkle the carrots themselves with chopped parsley just before serving.

Then, too, green peppers stuffed deliciously with rice, cheese and vegetables and baked whole are wonderfully good:

Baked Peppers Stuffed with Rice and Vegetables

4 slices bacon, diced
4 tablespoons chopped onions
2 cans condensed vegetable soup
3 cups cooked rice
1½ cups grated cheese
½ teaspoon salt
Pinch of pepper
6 tablespoons buttered crumbs
6 green peppers (medium size)

Cook the diced bacon until brown. Remove bacon from fat and cook onions until soft and yellow. Then add bacon, vegetable soup, cooked rice, grated cheese and seasonings and mix thoroughly.

Wash peppers, cut a slice from stem end. Remove seeds and cut away seed parts, leaving a clean shell. Place in boiling salted water and boil 5 to 8 minutes or until almost tender. Drain and stuff with the "Rice and Vegetable" filling. Sprinkle buttered bread crumbs over the top. Bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) 25 to 30 minutes. Serves 6.

The bride's costume was a lovely soldier blue suit; two white orchids were pinned to her shoulder. Miss Anita Moorehouse was maid-of-honor.

Heiser is a member of the U. S. Coast Guard and is now on active duty. Edmund Heiser, the groom's brother, attended as best man.

At the close of the wedding, a reception was held at the bride's home, 178 Irvington street. Approximately 35 relatives and friends were present to congratulate the couple.

Mrs. Dorothy Donofrio, chairman, announces that Carmelo will be displayed in Hale Brothers' Mission street store the week of November 30. She will also be displayed at one of the local stores.

Another project being worked on by the ladies is the El Carmelo Cook Book, composed of tested recipes. The recipes have all been submitted by various members. Mrs. Marge Baker, chairman, announces the books will be completed on or before December 10.

Proceeds from these sales will go toward defraying expenses of the welfare work carried on by the parlor during the holiday season.

A short talk will be given by Mrs. Margaret Holzworth, Parent Education chairman. A class demonstration will also be presented by Mrs. L. Cope's kindergarten class.

At the close of the business session, refreshments will be served under the chairmanship of Mrs. Sarah Nordgren. All members are invited to be present.

CHESNEY ATTENDS SACRAMENTO MEET

Nearly two hundred fire department heads of cities in the northern part of the state convened at a two day conclave of the Northern California Fire Chiefs association in Sacramento, Saturday and Sunday, attended by Fire Chief A. P. Chesney of Daly City.

Reporting on the meeting, the Daly City chief revealed that the convention was primarily interested in the fire department's place in civilian defense, notably in the training of auxiliary firemen volunteers.

A new type of bomb, reputedly used by the Japanese now in place of the incendiary, occupied the discussion at part of the business session. This particular bomb, although not officially known to be in extensive use by the Japanese, is said to be packed with two pounds of T. N. T. at the point. After the bomb burns for awhile, like an incendiary, it explodes, according to Chesney.

At the meeting, fire chiefs were urged to instruct people of their respective communities to pay no attention to the wide variety of unofficial "methods of extinguishing", as was the case in incendiary defense. Advice from the fire department is to keep away from such bombs, and make no attempt to put them out. An extensive study is now under way nationally to combat the new type of bomb.

LUCCA MEAT MARKET

THANKSGIVING WITHOUT TURKEY?

One of the oldest American traditions is serving turkey on that most truly American holiday, Thanksgiving Day. It's a custom that started away back when the founders of our nation gathered to give thanks for the blessings of the new world.

It is most fitting, then, that turkey should be the highlight as friends and families gather in this wartime observance of the day. It's also the sensible meat to serve this year, as conservation is one of our foremost wartime problems. LUCCA MEAT DEPARTMENT is offering a good selection of choice birds at the lowest market prices.
